ELTE UNIVERSITY LIBRARY: WHO DO WE SUPPORT, AND HOW?

The Education and Research Support Department of the ELTE University Library and Archives supports the University's faculty members, researchers, students, and journal editorial teams in key areas of scholarly communication, publishing, and research support.

Our goal is to support the effective management, long-term preservation, visibility, and accessibility of scholarly, educational, and institutional outputs produced at ELTE, in line with the principles of Open Science.

Our services include publication management, repository services, journal publishing support, persistent identifiers (DOIs), access to scholarly databases, and training and consultation. Through these activities, we contribute to making research outputs more accessible, discoverable, and reusable.
